

We're Hiring! - Percussion and Drum Set Teacher

At Armstrong Community Music School we teach, explore, perform, and celebrate music. We support and engage our entire community with nurturing and transformational musical experiences.

We are seeking a percussion and drum set music teacher to teach private lessons at our school (404 Camp Craft Rd., Westlake Hills 78746). The ideal candidate will be comfortable working with a wide range of ages, skills and abilities. ACMS offers percussion and drum set lessons for ages 5 and up. Our facility is fully accessible, and all programs are open to students with special needs. Our school has a dedicated percussion space equipped with two electric drum kits, 4.3-octave marimba, and snare pads and stands available for private lesson use. We currently have a small studio of percussion students and are seeking an instructor who is willing to take on existing students and work to build up the studio.

Desired Experience and Competencies:

- Experience as a professional musician and/or music educator
- Adept at managing your own schedule
- Communicate clearly and in a timely manner
- Enjoy collaborating and being part of a dynamic team
- Flexibility to adapt to the interests and emotional/developmental needs of the individual being served
- Experience or education/training in working with students with special needs

ACMS offers:

- A beautiful facility with professional, clean studios
- Competitive wages
- Opportunities to work with partner organizations
- Opportunities to work special events at the school and off site
- Opportunities to collaborate with a vibrant musical community

We believe in supporting the professional growth and success of our music educators. We do not have a non-compete policy, and we welcome teachers who work with other schools, institutions, and private studios. Our goal is to foster a thriving musical community that benefits both educators and students alike.

Pay starts at $35 per hour and increases with years of experience. This is a part time position, with flexible schedule. Hours will be discussed individually with qualified applicants.

If you are interested in joining our faculty, please send a cover letter and resume to Executive Director, Liz Cass: lcass@acmsaustin.org or call 512-474-2331.
