

We're Hiring! - Piano Teacher @ Round Rock Location

At Armstrong Community Music School we teach, explore, perform, and celebrate music. We support and engage our entire community with nurturing and transformational musical experiences.

We are seeking a piano teacher to teach private lessons at our Round Rock location (2201 Double Creek Dr. Suite 5002, Round Rock, TX 78664). The ideal candidate will be comfortable working with a wide range of ages, skills and abilities. ACMS offers piano lessons for ages 5 and up. Our facility is fully accessible, and all programs are open to students with special needs. We have an existing studio of piano students and a waitlist of students who will be transitioning to this new instructor.

Desired Experience and Competencies:

- Experience as a professional musician and/or music educator
- Flexibility to adapt to the interests and emotional/developmental needs of the individual being served
- Ability to support students in preparing for graded performance exams.
- Adept at managing your own schedule
- Communicate clearly and in a timely manner

ACMS offers:

- A beautiful facility with professional, clean studios
- Competitive wages
- Opportunities to work with partner organizations
- Opportunities to work special events at the school and off site
- Opportunities to collaborate with a vibrant musical community

We believe in supporting the professional growth and success of our music educators. We do not have a non-compete policy, and we welcome teachers who work with other schools, institutions, and private studios. Our goal is to foster a thriving musical community that benefits both educators and students alike.

Pay starts at $35 per hour and increases with years of experience. This is a part time position, with flexible schedule. Hours will be discussed individually with qualified applicants.

If you are interested in joining our faculty, please send a cover letter and resume to Executive Director, Liz Cass: lcass@acmsaustin.org or call 512-474-2331.
